Daughter Finds Mother Safe

MCLEAN OUT OF OTTAWA LINEUP

Crowd Only Sure Thing About Tonight's Game

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

CALGARY, May 5.—About the only thing certain where Wednesday night's fourth game of the Allan Cup finals between Edmonton Flyers and Ottawa Senators is concerned is that Victoria Arena will be packed to the gunwales.

Demand for tickets is along out-of-this-world proportions. Most of the news is emanating from the camp of the Easterners. For one thing it has been confirmed that Jackie McLean, injured Flyers' left-winger, is in by 7-0 in the third game to take a one-game lead in the series, will not see action.

In fact, George (Buck) Boucher, Ottawa coach, says McLean is through for the season even if the final should somehow drag along to June 1.

FLY FROM EAST

Boucher also advised that George Greene, pivot of the line with Berg and Lars Regan is ailing. However, despite a sprained ankle, the ace stick-handler is expected to make it to the ice sheet for tonight's encounter.

The Easterners, however, believe that Alex Smart, a left-winger, and defenceman Ray Trainer, who stayed behind when the Ottawa squad headed West, will fly here for the fifth contest, billed for Saturday.

However, in Smart's continued absence, to this point, along with the injury to McLean, Coach Boucher will further shuffle his attacking corps for the fourth game.

He will go with lines made up of Green-Emberg-Regan; Bill Watson (a 39-year-old veteran of the Leafy Lean), Dagenais, Check, Tidmarsh-Smith.

For their part Flyers will take to the ice in the same line-up as on Monday. This means that Gordon Watt will be at his place on the rearguard with "Pug" Young and Doug MacLean, leaving Doug Lane in reserve.

Lane, incidentally, is ready to be worked again following a repetition of a foot injury suffered in the opening game of the series at Regina.

The Edmonton club was some three hours late arriving Tuesday

Police Officers Are Promoted

Detective Jerry Black and Constable Pete Tyler of the city police force were promoted today. Black, who wears his clothes behind and goes back into uniform as patrol sergeant while Tyler leaves the uniform into action.

The mercury today is expected to reach 40 degrees above, highest during the Spring.

High Tuesday was 36 and overnight was 42, highest minimum in Alberta.

Rainstorms along the Pacific coast are moving eastward toward southern Alberta today and occasional showers are expected during Thursday.

Skins will remain cloudy to day with light showers during the night, but temperatures will climb to near normal this afternoon.

Only 61 of an inch of rain was recorded yesterday, the night from showers confined to the Edmonton region.

Band Marooned, Can't Play Here

Western Canada's spring floods have caused havoc and hardships in many places these past few weeks.

Latest "victim" is Jerry Gage and his all-16-piece orchestra.

Word was received today that the famed dance band, scheduled to play at a performance at the North West Air Command Drill hall tomorrow night, is "marooned" by flood conditions in Saskatchewan and will be unable to keep their engagement here.

"When you see a team as healthy looking as that this time of year watch out," he said.

Dave S. R. Miller, chief of the RCAF search and rescue unit here, left today to find the two men missing over the North Atlantic. RCAF reported he had today.

The DC-3 aircraft took off from Gander, Nfld., last night and was down in Shannon, Elst, at 6:15 a.m. today.

Names of the two men aboard were not immediately known. The aircraft is owned by an American oil company.

Sgt. Major Gordon S. R. Miller of Edmonton, chief of the RCAF search and rescue unit here, left late today for Gander to direct the vast search. He said planes from the United States were being sent to Newfoundland to join the hunt.

City Man Directs Great Air Search

HALIFAX, May 5.—(CP)—A search force of 30 aircraft is being assembled in Newfoundland to search the North West Air Command Drill hall tomorrow night, is "marooned" by flood conditions in Saskatchewan and will be unable to keep their engagement here.

"In view of previous engagements and present unfortunate circumstances, the band will be unable to bypass Edmonton," is the report from orchestra officials.

The Bullettin, sponsors of the orchestra's scheduled appearance, regret the unexpected cancellation by this unavoidable circumstance.

All persons who purchased tickets will have money refunded on presentation of tickets at The Bullettin office and also at Mike's newsstand.

Family Gave Up Flat Rather Than Dog—Back

TORONTO, May 5.—(CP)—A dog's best friends, the Widdowson family are back in their apartment after an eviction—but their squabble with the city property department isn't settled yet.

It looked like a night on the street for the family Sunday when Archibald Widdowson, his wife Dorothy and their three children were evicted from their apartment.

Told they wanted them out, it is regulation of all the city's emergency housing projects that no dogs may be kept by tenants. The situation would become increasingly bad if the owner's car caretaker, she didn't look at all conscience-stricken.

"Rather than give up our dog, why not the children? They're so much more difficult to give up home," said Widdowson. "They wouldn't take our rent at City Hall for the past two weeks and told us they wanted us out."

U.S. Dollars to Buy $33½ Million Food Shipment for U.K.

Europe Recovery Program Makes Purchases in Canada

WASHINGTON, May 5.—(CP)—A $33,500,000 shipment of wheat, flour and bacon to Britain under the European Recovery Program will be purchased in Canada with United States funds, it was disclosed today.

The shipment was authorized today by Paul G. Hoffman, economic co-operation administrator.

The food for Britain will be bought in Canada under a provision of the $5,300,000,000 Recovery Act permitting purchase in countries other than the United States. That is intended to save American supplies and to help maintain normal world trade relations.

The allotment to Britain brought the total assistance authorized for Western Europe to $107,770,000.

The allotment to Britain under the recovery plan was the first to that country and the largest single allocation date.

Hoffman said immediately after Britain filed a "letter of intent" qualifying her for aid under the recovery plan.

The allotment will be made up of 246,000 long tons of wheat worth $17,000,000, 61,000 long tons of wheat flour worth $5,500,000 and 13,000 long tons of bacon valued at $1,000,000.

Hoffman was asked if the financing of exports to the 16 receiving countries would be retroactive and the administration went into action.

That was an "open question," Hoffman said and one that had not been decided upon.

"On the other hand," he added, "there are certainly going to be easements as in the case of the United Kingdom which contract with Canada where we will pick up the financing of shipments made under a long-term contract, if the terms of the contract seem satisfactory."

It is understood that one of the main reasons for the retroactivity is the fact that the United States aid plan depends upon dependents from $1,000 to $1,500.

Some reduction in the eight percent sales tax seemed certain.

Last year, Mr. Abbott was said to have had some difficulty with the complications of his percentage reduction, which averaged out at 20, and it was "understood" that this year the exemptions would be raised.

That would move the exemption level for taxpayers without dependents from $1,000 to $1,000, and for those with dependents from $1,000 to $1,500.

1st Warships Are to Enter Hudson Bay

MONTREAL, May 5.—(CP)—Canada's new aircraft carrier Magnificent will be the first ship to enter exercise in northern waters this year which will see "the first Canadian warships ever to enter Hudson Bay." Defense Minister Claxton announced last night.

The Magnificent will not herself enter the bay, the minister intimated, but will be accompanied by two destroyers and a tanker into Baffin Straits. The destroyers will go on to Churchill, Man.

In a strong-spoken address to the Montreal Board of Trade, the Minister of Trade, he said the step was being taken "recognizing the importance of northern waters to us," and added that Canada also is constructing a large modern icebreaker" for the navy.

The minister also disclosed that Canada also is spending up developing a two-seater, twin-engine long range fighter particularly adapted to use in Canada." In the meantime the Dominion had bought 125 modern Vampire aircraft.

FIVE-POWER UNION

He noticed that both Canada and the United States had promised support to the recently-formed five-power Western Union.

"Defense has always been a matter of national policy," Claxton said. "These developments may lead to a system of pooled security or to other developments of far-reaching significance."

"But in any event today there is only one possible aggressor; the only war in which Canada would take part would be a world war, if Canada is attacked, it will be an incident of a world war."

NAVY'S FUTURE JOB

Canada needed a foundation of defence forces capable of expansion as rapidly as possible and suitable for us to take our place for our security and our self-respect."

The active army would provide an airborne brigade to look after communications, the air force the administrative and training staff to enable the reserves to be built into a large modern army from the framework of the present service reserve.

PLANE DEVELOPMENT

"We are speeding up development of a two-seater, two-engine long range fighter particularly adapted to use in Canada. In the meantime we have bought from

Paving Cement Unnecessary

The argument that Edmonton's paving program is unavoidably delayed because of a cement shortage is entirely invalid because practically every street in Edmonton could be adequately paved without using a yard of cement, according to competent engineering advice.

Saskatoon and Calgary have recently completed extensions to their airports using no concrete whatever.

The type of roadway constructed at these points was 12 inches of compacted clay, 12 inches of stabilized gravel (that is, bound with an asphalt mixture) and a top 3-inch dressing of asphalt.

This roadbed has been proved capable of carrying at least 50,000 pounds.

Similar roads could be constructed in Edmonton that would carry a load up to 70,000 pounds.

Trolley buses weigh in the neighborhood of 14 tons or 28,000 pounds. Carrying 60 passengers at an average of 160 pounds each, the loaded bus would total a gross weight of less than 35,000 pounds—well under the maximum capacity of a well-constructed asphalt road.

It might be necessary to construct certain arterial streets, designed to accommodate the heaviest trucks, of an especially deep concrete mixture. It might also be necessary to inset concrete aprons at bus stops where the stationary load exerts tremendous pressure. Enough cement for these purposes is probably available.

But, in a general way, Edmonton's 425 miles of unpaved roads and her 500 miles of lanes could be adequately and satisfactorily paved without employing the slightest quantity of cement.

What, then, becomes of the contention that Edmonton's paving program can only proceed at a snail's pace because cement is in short supply?

The truth is that some of Edmonton's civic officials are tied down to a cement obsession. They apparently cannot think in terms other than those of concrete.

As a result Edmonton's paving program drags and Edmonton citizens either mire themselves in mud or live in a constant cloud of dust.

The cement shortage alibi is not good enough. Edmonton people demand paving action.

Royalty an Economic Asset

The minor fuss that has been made in the British House of Commons by poorly informed radicals about the expenditure of $200,000 on the modernization of Clarence House, the residence of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, is both ill-mannered and ridiculous because not a penny of that money will come out of the pockets of the British taxpayer.

Nearly 200 years ago, the kings of England made an agreement with parliament under which the revenues from crown lands (meaning the personal properties of the sovereign) would be turned over to the state in exchange for a civil list of £527,000 a year which maintains the entire royal family and all the state residences.

This agreement is renewed each time another king or queen ascends the throne.

Since the revenues surrendered by the monarch are many times the amount of the civil list of £527,000, the state makes a very good thing out of the institution of royalty.

The appropriation of $200,000, then, is not an imposition on the British people. It is part of the general deal in which the people make a substantial profit.

Royalty in England is an economic asset.

Eastwood School and Mud Roads

The 800 odd students of Eastwood Intermediate and High School are cut off from their institution of learning by two blocks of thick, soupy mud that hardens into rutted trenches in dry weather.

From one-third to one-half of these students travel to and from the school on bicycles, a matter of necessity and economy, since the position of the school serving North Edmonton, the Highlands and all the north and east extremes of the city, necessitates an average trip of perhaps a mile for the pupils.

Eastwood School is on 120th avenue. There is a paved road up to Alberta (118th) avenue. Then there is interposed these two impassable blocks, cutting cyclists off from the school like a mediaeval moat.

It is true that there are sidewalks along these two blocks. But it is against the law to ride bikes on sidewalks. And the district, from the standpoint of the cyclists, is too well policed.

Representations have been made to the city council about paving or graveling the two blocks between 118th and 120th avenues. The council has declined to act.

If there is some insuperable difficulty about making this stretch of road passable, although we cannot imagine any road-making project more important than making the school accessible, surely the council could stretch a point and permit the cycling students the use of one sidewalk over these two blocks without having to fall into the clutches of the law.

Newfoundland will hold its referendum on a new form of government on June 3. Public men and newspapers in Canada are keeping out of the controversy, which is a wise decision because union with Canada, promoted by Canadian influence, would be precariously based.

Senator Crerar sensibly informs the Senate that money given to the people by Parliament comes out of the people's pockets. Nothing from the government is free. The taxpayer foots all the bills.

United Nations Is Now Mere Adjunct of U.S.

NEW YORK.—I always felt that the United Nations made a terrible and even tragic mistake when they picked New York as the world capital.

It is always easy to be wise after the event. But I doubt—if it were possible to turn back the clock—that a majority of the UN members would vote for a capital anywhere else.

And of all the possible sites for a world capital, the U.S. might be the most reputable. I can't think of any place less congenial for the vast resultant nations are supposed to want.

How wrong we were back in 1945 when we went to San Francisco, wondering whether the United States would be allowed to do in the UN what it did to the League of Nations 25 years before.

Some of us were afraid then that the U.S.—still being isolationists at heart—would never let the nations be represented in the UN. What has happened is that the U.S. has pretty well taken over the UN. The UN has been moulded to fit the facts of U.S. thinking rather than the reverse.

Don't let anybody fool you. The UN is becoming more and more an adjunct of the United States. Instead of more and more establishing its own identity, the UN is visibly becoming year by year more and more like a mere bureau of the U.S. government.

As one example, it is becoming harder and harder for newspapers to attend the sessions here. The new rule is that—no matter what paper you represent, no matter how many times you have been "voted" to obtain credentials before you can fill your seat, you must do it each time you want to come to the UN. The minimum time required to get such newspaper credentials is three months. I don't know why myself, but others have.

The bottleneck in all this is the State Department of the United States government. One can only talk to the U.S. officials for a few minutes to realize how annoying all this is to them. But there it is—for here in the U.S.A. the UN is.

U.S. Versus The Soviet

The real reason for the new red tape between the United States and Russia is that the Americans and the Russians are reading the American papers or listening to the American radio—we're the ones who are doing it.

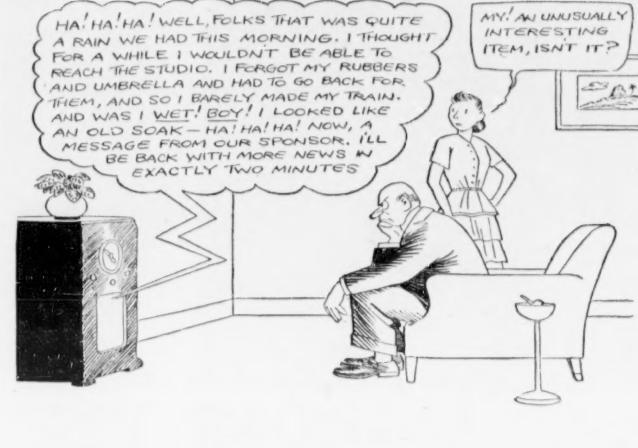

But you will talk with otherwise intelligent people who know how far we have come.

The powers-that-be in this country are almost hysterically afraid of "Communism." Why, I wouldn't know. For what pass for "leftist" country are mostly far,

OUR TOWN

Russian People Like Any of Us

John Steinbeck's "A Russian Journal" is a very fine book. I'd recommend it to anyone interested in getting along with the rest of the people of the world.

I'd especially recommend it to the Young Liberals who passed a resolution supporting compulsory military training on the theory that the way to peace is to build bigger armies. The way to peace is education, and education and Steinbeck's report is some proof of this.

Steinbeck wanted to find out the truth about the people of Russia. He set up a kind of journal of the story of the people of the story today, in which a man sits at a desk in Washington or New York or Toronto and cables and rearranges them to fit his own mental pattern so that it becomes not news but history.

It seemed to Steinbeck that there was a job to do for an honest and liberal man in finding out the truth about the people. These people are really like—what the people wear, what they have for dinner, how they make love, what they think. These things are important just as ours are," he reasoned, "but there must be the greater other side there, just as there is."

That mythical Iron Curtain, beloved topic of Board of Trade luncheon speakers, rolled up. Steinbeck, the photographer, spent a many weeks meeting the Russian people in their own homes and on their farms.

They Were Just People

Steinbeck writes honestly of the feeling of strangeness that all travellers have in a foreign country. This did not deter him from getting into the minds of the people.

He could be distracted, say, while walking to a bus stop, by a crowd of stainless steel. But this would not stop him in finding out the goodness of this person, the essential similarity between this person and any American or Canadian.

"We found, as we had suspected, that the Russian people are people, just as other people are people, that they are very nice," he writes. "The ones we met had a hatred of war; they wanted the same things all people want—the right to live, the right to work, security and peace."

His own summary of the book is probably the best description. "We hope that this journal will not be satisfactory either to the ecclesiastical Left, nor the lumpen Right. The first will say it is anti-Russian, the second that it is pro-Russian."

FROM TODAY'S NEWS

This column yesterday tried to predict President Truman's view that the current year "may well determine the world's future," and pointed out that the No. 1 issue was the question of whether he would be re-elected at the election time. We didn't say much about the presidential question, however, in the election act. We were Liberals.

About this Communist menace the best people seem to take the kindest attitude possible. To the working stiff in the old world who pull the load are making us feel that we are the ones who are to blame for the whole mess and oh and oh the injustice of it. Our freedom. Our democracy.

As I recollect it was always the under dog that fought for and the other right, or conservative side, of our CCF in Canada.

Henry Wallace, for instance, is damned up hill and downdale as the palest of pale pinks. Yet to read the papers here and to listen to the talk of well-to-do Republicans, you would think the Henrys was about to begin building the barricades in Times Square.

The other night the Wallace party hired a schoolhouse near the bridge and held an election meeting. The police had to run around until all right, then granted another to the Veterans of Foreign Wars to hold an anti-Wallace meeting. The VFW had a hall on the corner building where the Wallace meeting was to complete with brass bands!

In their hysterical fear of the Wallace "challenge" the powers-that-be in this country are almost hysterically afraid of "Communism." Why, I wouldn't know. For what pass for "leftist" country are mostly far, the greatest danger of war isn't that any one nation will precipitate it. Rather it's the chance that some country, or group, might inadvertently get itself into a situation which almost inevitably would turn the cold war into a hot one.

Price and Rich Spark Alberta To Cage Victory

Basketball Series Tied Up
As Thunderbirds Lose 51-46

By Dick Beddoes

The weather was perfect. So were the Bears. In the grittiest basketball display of this, or any year, on the Varsity Drill Hall maples the Alberta Golden Bears edged the UBC Thunderbirds 51-46 Tuesday night. On the finest evening in weeks here 1,350 fans witnessed the Goldies deadlock the western intercollegiate finals at one game each.

Third and deciding game in the night was on Thursday night at 7 o'clock on the Varsity floor. The winning club leaves the same night for further play along the Olympic basketball circuit.

Before the contest Captain Bill Price of the Bears told Rabbit Erickson to hold Pat McGee to eight points and the Albertans won. McGee, in fact, had 10, who scored 22 points in the first game, mainly by outrunning his check, which happened to be Erickson.

Well, red-haired Erickson followed the coast star around like a basted garter and restricted him to nine. And the Price forecast came true.

Bill Rich helped the forecast immeasurably. Broncho Bill from the McGrath plains, started on Alberta's first string in place of Les Macrae, who had been suspended this season, fired 23 points and the Bears were in.

ON MERITS

Otherwise the Alberta quintet won strictly on their merits. They outscored B.C. by 100 points, mostly by snatching rebounds, flipping passes—and what counts most, scoring baskets.

Player reaction to the change is varied. Those capable of making the jump into pro ranks probably will hold out for no more than $1,000 a month. If they don't get these concessions, several have said they will move east where they can play for pay and still be amateurs.

But Jim Macrae was particularly enthusiastic snatching rebounds. He was all arms and legs and elbows in the scrambles under either hoop. The Alberta quintet came up with ball and the guy with the apple scores most often.

Coach Van Vliet started Gordon McCormack, Macrae, Rich, Erickson, and Price again, the crew.

It's been rumoured that Irvin, since his team finished a disastrous fifth last season, would prefer to stick close by his sports goods business in Regina and continue his pylon-raising as a sideline.

In Regina Irvin said he had not received the offer, though it may be in the mail; "I haven't thought it over and I haven't made any decision."

There was some criticism of Irvin last season, the first time in 20 campaigns his teams have finished out of the National Hockey League playoffs for the Stanley Cup.

SESET BY INJURIES

At the same time there was sympathy for his plight in trying to keep functioning at high speed a team beset by injuries.

Reaction by Montreal sports editors to the offer provided both warm approval and a new anti-Irvin blast.

Elmer Ferguson of the Directors' General term the directors "gentlemen" and not easily stampeded." He said Irvin was unfairly blamed for the team's debacle.

Approval of the directors' action came also from Bill O'Meara, the Montreal Star, who wrote that Irvin was "the subject of a lot of guerilla opposition last winter."

On the other hand Roger Duthie, writing in La Patriote, announced of the offer was "tragic news" and that "the gentlemen of the Forum were either little concerned or decided to give Dick Irvin another chance to lead the club into last place."

Dick came close last year when the tricolors finished in fifth position and perhaps he will succeed in sending it into the cellar in 1948-49... He knows he is a good coach, and as my coach, Dick is an excellent judge of pigeons..."

Irvin became coach of Chicago Black Hawks during the 1928-29 season and went on to coach Maple Leafs in 1931. He came to Canadians nine years later.

Flyers' Spirits High Before Going South

Edmonton Flyers, with that "silverware" glint in their eyes, boarded the train for Calgary Tuesday noon for the fourth game of the Allan Cup series with the best from the east—Ottawa Senators.

Spurred by Monday night's victory over the Ottawa Senators, the Edmonton lads were a happy lot as they said their farewells to a large group of well-wishers.

They were left behind when their employers at first failed to give them sufficient time off to make the full western trip.

EARL SANDE HANDED 60-DAY SUSPENSION

NEW YORK, May 5.—(AP)—Earl Sande, facing Federal grand jury action on a charge of illegally possessing narcotics, was handed a 60-day suspension Tuesday by the Jockey Club.

Under the suspension, the famous racehorse owner, driver and trainer of horses is denied admission to the grounds of any track under the jurisdiction of the turf's ruling body. This includes the major racing plants in the United States.

Sande was assigned to a fore-to have been drugged when it won a race at a track tonight.

The former Jockey, rider of three Kentucky Derby winners, waived examination and was released without bail.

Jockey Club's stewards, meeting Tuesday to study the case, also suspended Sande's foreman, Eugene Donaldson, and a groom, Francis Both, for 30 days.

ONE CONCESSION

The Jockey Club made one concession in Sande's case. As a result of his suspension, he will be given a day off each week.

The former horse owner, driver and trainer of horses is denied admission to the grounds of any track under the jurisdiction of the turf's ruling body.

Sande also disqualified the win scored by Sande's horse, Big Stage, in the third race at Jamaica Park on April 21. The $4,000 purse was ordered paid to the winner.

A routine saliva test on Big Stage following this race resulted in an investigation by the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Council, Sande's horse having tested positive on the narcotics charge.

Sande rode more than 900 winners during the '26 and '30 seasons and earned his employers more than $1,000,000. His record Derby winner was Zev in 1923, Flying Ebony in 1925 and Gallant Fox in 1930.

Eddie Joost Sparks A's To 8-6 Win Over Indians

NEW YORK, May 5.—(CP)—Eddie Joost, a veteran infielder who has spent most of his career shuttling between the majors and the minors, seems to be set to play a shortstop for the Philadelphia Athletics this year.

Joost turned up in a hero's role Tuesday as he blazed a 10th-inning Homer with Pete Suder on base to give the A's an 8-6 victory over the last leading Cleveland Indians—their first defeat in six road starts. The Homer was Joost's fourth of the year.

The win was the second of the season for rookie southpaw Lou Brissie who pitched hitless ball for the last three innings. Starter

Phil Marchildon hurt his back fielding a grounder in the second inning and was shelved from the mound by a three-run triple in the third.

Sam Chapman had a three-run four-bagger for the winners while Eddie Stanky hit his fourth of the season for Cleveland.

3-GAME WIN STREAK

The slow-starting Boston Red Sox put together their first three-game winning streak of the season by defeating Detroit Tigers, 6-3, and twice. Bill Ferris his first win of the year, his first defeat in six road starts. The Homer was Joost's fourth of the year.

Frank Shea turned in a four-hitter and was the route for the first time this season as New York Yankees downed St. Louis Browns 6-1 to move into third place in the American League. Shea tripled home a run himself, and collected a hit on the mound, walking seven Brownies.

Two walks, an error and singles by Joe DiMaggio, Yogi Berra and George McQuinn were good for three New York runs in the tenth.

ENOS (COUNTRY) SLAUGHTER

Enos (Country) Slaughter ended hitting streak in the eighth inning Tuesday night at St. Louis Cardinals-Brooklyn Dodgers tilt, clouting a home run that gave the Cards a 5-4 victory. Lefty Alphie Graham closed a two-run triple in the sixth.

Rain washed out the rest of the schedule, forcing postponement of two night games and an afternoon contest.

Caught With Memories Down?

The fine two-way job turned in against Ottawa Monday night by the Kreller-Smitten-Pringle trio of flyers was at least half a surprise to many of the patrons.

Every Flyer was aware that Kreller and his pals alone had flanks so close to tops defensively in western puck circles. But their offensive antics against the baffled easterners caught a lot of the option holders with their memories down.

Because it isn't as though all three haven't long since indicated the know their way around once across the opposition's blue stripe.

Let's consider, first, the Pacific Coast League statistics for the season 1945-46. Kreller and Pringle were with Vancouver Canucks, Smitten toiled a few miles away with New Westminster Royals.

The record book, compiled for Al Leader, PCHL prez, shows a total of 222 scoring points to the credit of the stickouts of Monday's 7-0 whitewashing of Ottawa. Here's the dope:

| | G | A | Pts. | Pen. |
|----------------|----|----|------|------|
| Pringle, Van. | 53 | 41 | 94 | 52 |
| Smitten, N.W. | 37 | 27 | 64 | 0 |
| Kreller, Vanc. | 31 | 33 | 64 | 12 |

You see. They know their way around.

Don Stanley Played Little

Comes a letter from Don Stanley, last season with Flyers, to the "Harvard 'U," Cambridge, Mass., in the Hit-The-Books-Loop:

In the tall pivot's case chasing the puck has certainly been relegated to a secondary role in favor of the pursuit of knowledge, post-graduate style.

As Stanley writes: "My hockey activities this year were practically nil. I went out to practice a couple of times with the Olympics (Boston Olympics of the Quebec Senior and Eastern Amateur Wheels) in the early fall but couldn't make any more because of classes."

"During the Christmas holidays I played a couple of games in a local league here and turned out once with the Olympics. You can imagine what kind of shape I was in."

One thing that has surprised Stanley is his discovery of the calibre of play in a minor amateur circuit operating across the Charles River from Cambridge.

Rink Rent $25 Per Hour

"Considering the few that play," the ex-Flyer observes, "I don't think you could find a more enthusiastic bunch. Facilities are so limited that certain of the pros and girls get under $100.00 or larger."

Apparently, however, the demand for ice accommodation, the rink frequently operates right around the clock. As well the players generally have to find the necessary cash in their own ranks to pay for the ice. The charge runs to $25 per hour. That's right.

Stanley, who will return in mid-July to take up again his work as provincial sanitary engineer, was impressed with the class of the American boys, considering their limited opportunities.

"I think provided the proper facilities, quite a number of good players would be produced. The love for the sport is certainly there. As well these boys have the best hockey players in the world to watch, an advantage western Canada kids do not have."

Reference to the best hockey players in the world has to do with the National Hockey League of which, of course, Boston is a stronghold.

'King' Keller Nudging Along Comeback Trail

By Jack Hand

NEW YORK, May 5. — (AP) — Slowly but surely Charley Keller is trudging along baseball's comeback trail. Soon they'll be calling him King Kong again.

Last September, two months after an operation for removal of a disc from the base of his spine, Keller doubted he ever would play again. New York Yankees weren't sure either.

"I don't know yet," he said, "we'll have to wait until spring training time."

During the early exhibition games, Keller was just another ballplayer running around. One day they let him get in a ball game as a pinch-hitter. He singled sharply to right on the first pitch and managed to get on base.

"At first I thought I was going to fall flat on my face," he said. "It's a good thing Bucky (Manager Bucky Harris) put in a runner zone."

But as opening day approached, Keller was in there more often. He started playing April 1, running easily and just feeling his way along. When spring arrived, he had convinced Manager Harris that he belonged in the regular lineup.

NEW CONTRACT FILLED

A few days later, his conditional contract was up and a new one filled. It probably will be safe to assume the first paper called for a 25-per-cent cut and the second returned his pay to the 1947 level.

Although Keller hit the ball hard in the spring and ran reasonably fast, there were those who shook their heads and warned "wait until he hits to score."

Well, he had to slide in Philadelphia last week, scoring all the way from first on Yogi Berra's double. Press box observers said he didn't hold up a bit.

The latest averages, including all games on, to Tuesday show Keller hitting .280.

BIG MOMENTS IN SPORT

25 Years Ago

Play in the Presidents' competition at the Edmonton Golf and Country Club will bring together the following competitors: J. B. McBride and A. J. Richards vs. J. St. Clair Blackett and E. C. Emery; F. A. Stucliffe and Dr. G. Malcolmson vs. H. Shaw Jr. and F. P. Sommerville; G. C. McBooth and J. R. Henley vs. J. K. McDonald and S. Lamb.

Callies and Vets clash today in a first division soccer match at Diamond Park. Jimmy Hunter has been added to the Callies' lineup.

Players Shake Kinks In Renfrew Workout

Morris and Harney View Prospects for Club Berths

They say you can tell a ball player by the way he puts on his uniform, by the way he handles himself once he gets the diamond underfoot.

On this score Ed Morris, brand new manager of Brant Matthews' New Edmonton Hotel Eskimos, cut quite a figure as Renfrew Park night for the first time this season.

Manager Morris was on hand, along with candidates for places on the team, top man Bill Four in the final standings a year ago only to bow before Purdy in the playoffs.

The former New York Yankees farmhand carries on like a gent who knows his way around when it comes to the sport dreamed up by Abner Dickey.

TOMMY AY FAIR

Last night's get together was a two-way affair. Laurel Harney, billed to make a great effort to steer Edmonton Motors' Cup up from the basement, took over in the role of manager, helped Morris ride herd on to 100 ballotters and would-be-ballotters who showed up for the initial tune-up exercises.

The Big Four lid-lifters are scheduled for May 14. In other words team-leader laurels are off. Morris has exactly 10 days in which to come up with a line-up of some consequence.

It shaped up as a real chore.

A little of a rigorous nature was attempted as the training season got underway. The rockies, many of them from the Junior League, as well as the older ones, were made to run around the park a number of times to loosen leg muscles. Several dozen "Spaldings" were broken out of their boxes and the boys rattled the ball back and forth.

Nightly workouts will be the order from now on with a switch to afternoon starting time for Sunday sessions. Along about Thursday uniforms will be distributed and the weeding out procedure will be completed. There's no time to waste.

Among those on hand who campaigned in the Big Four last year was Past president, Don McCannel; President, Earl Graham; first vice-president, Stan Susek; second vice-president, Archik Inkpen; general manager, Eddie Hadden; treasurer, Ed King; director of finance and membership, Ted West; director of public relations, Dick Edwards; director of soccer, Harry Caldwell; director of fastball, Henry Caldwell; director of fastball, Monty Ford; directors, Charlie Seelan, Herb Joslin, Frank Cowles, Gert Brunness, Jack Hanks, Norm McBeth.

Present Russ Methods May Produce Calamity

LONDON, May 5.—(AP)—Anthony Eden, Britain's wartime foreign secretary, said in parliament today that if the Russians persisted in their "present methods" they would "risk an overwhelming calamity for themselves and alas, for the world."

U.S. Dollars To Buy Food for Britain

into existence Mr. Hoffman was prevented from buying outside the U.S., foods that were in surplus within his own country. This was interpreted to mean that there can be no future guarantee that ERP will pay for all the Canadian contracts.

NO DIRECT DOLLARS

The Canadian official said that the first shipment—like those that follow—will mean no direct financial contracts for Canada with the United States. The ERP dollars would go to Britain and she would pass them on her own.

Government officials in Ottawa welcomed Mr. Hoffman's intimation to a press conference that United Kingdom wheat purchases in Canada may be financed from April 9.

Today's announcement of the $32,500,000 shipment means that ERP purchases in Canada are out of the way. It has been suggested tentatively they will amount to $1,600,000 within the 18 months.

They will, officials have said, enable Canada to continue her terms of trade with the U.S. to Europe, but will not solve Canada's long-term dollar problem.

The Canadian food contracts with Britain this year amount to roughly $1,000,000 for bacon, beef, cheese and eggs.

The present wheat contract calling for delivery of 160,000,000 bushels for roughly $250,000,000 ends July 31. The $1.55-a-bushel price may then be changed.

OTTAWA, May 5.—(CP)—The $33,500,000 ERP shipment of Canadian wheat, flour and bacon to Britain that was announced today in Washington will go as part of

Post Office Motto Baffles Bertrand

By Dick Jackson
Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, May 5.—Well, what d'ya know, seems like Postmaster General Ernest Bertrand isn't even hep to the motto of his own department.

Still burning over the bushwhacked demands for mail delivery service for the veterans of the Grierson Estate, East Edmonton, Social Credit MP Pat Ashby, took up the cause in the Commons yesterday when orders for the day were called to needless the postmaster general with this seemingly prime question: "Has the post office department a motto, and if so what is that motto?"

Bertrand sat like a bump on a log, until a reply came from Arthur Smith, West Calgary's Progressive Conservative MP. "Sure," snapped Art Smith, "the motto is 'Service twice.'

Still thinking over it, Bertrand rolled to his feet and said, "I shall have to take the question into consideration."

Some moments later, Ashby whipped across the floor of the Commons with a copy of a post office handbook to show Bertrand the motto of the department, as touted in the postal service's own publication, "Service First."

Ashby reported Bertrand "seemed a little surprised."

400 PARCELS FROM DIME FUND

More than 400 food parcels have been sent to families overseas by DVA employees.

Parcels were financed from DVA's Britain fund begun in March.

The parcels contain a tin of spiced ham, cheese, powdered milk, tea, soup, flour, fats, feta, vanilla, coconut, pudding, salmon and rice.

Edmonton office sent 19 parcels to Calgary, 45 to Regina, 14 to Winnipeg, 50 to Vancouver, 14.

Paraguayan Plot Said Stamped Out

ASUNCION, Paraguay May 5 (AP)—Marco Ferrario, acting foreign minister of Paraguay, said yesterday a plot to assassinate high Paraguayan officials and their chiefs had been stamped out recently. Ferrario said Argentine border police had detained about 200 plotters found on Argentine soil.

A woman was bitten and her young son mauled by a dog in Calder, Tuesday night, police reported today.

HUNGRY ROBBER MUNCHES COOKIE

A "hungry" thief robbed Betty's cafe, 104 avenue and 102 street, early Tuesday. The thief claimed a board next to the cash register and the roof and into the premises by way of a skylight.

The boy was discovered about 3 a.m. by the daughter of proprietor Alex Sidek.

The boy, on the counter beside the cash register, was a party eating cookie, left by the thief.

Jaycees Holding Contest Finals

This should be a real talkfest. Wednesday night at the Macdonald hotel the final of the provincial Jaycee contest sponsored by Junior Chambers of Commerce will be decided.

Contestants are Don Desaulniers, representative of the Edmonton Junior Chamber, and Roger Flummerfelt, the Calgary Chamber. Both are insurance salesmen.

The Jaycees will follow the regular weekly dinner of the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

GARDENER STARTS WITH STOLEN TOOLS

Some ardent gardening fiend is away to a fine start with a long handled shovel, fork and wheelbarrow—all stolen.

Mr. Watson, 11924 65 street reports the shovel and fork stolen from his home while Nick Spivak, 10244 95 street complained of his wheelbarrow being taken.

Evelyn Nore Becomes Bride

Eastwood United Church was the scene of the recent wedding of Margaret Evelyn Ruth Nore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Nore and Clifford Ingue Silksstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ingue Silksstrom of Hay Lakes. The Rev. Dr. Staninton performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. N. Neilson, wore a grey suit consisting of a jacket with navy blue accessories. She chose a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Karen Garie who attended the bride as bridesmaid wore a green suit with white and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. John Nore was best man and E. Meyers was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neilson. The couple will reside in Kamloops.

Club Convention Delegates Named

Delegates to the International Soroptimist convention being held in London, England, will be Dorothy Singleton, Mrs. E. P. Weilwood and Margaret Fraser, who will represent the Edmonton branch. This was announced at a recent executive meeting of the club.

Mrs. Vera Campbell reported the club has been invited to the Canadian Bay Company store and extended thanks to all who had assisted.

President of the Edmonton Soroptimist said that 45 garments had been sent to Elizabeth Howes in England.

Two new clubs in the United States and the starting of a Venture club in Regina were reported on by Miss Revelli. Representatives of the Canadian Consumers Association of Consumers, Edmonton branch are to be Mrs. Alice Brewe and Mrs. Aleda Wellwood.

Tourism to Europe to the U.S. is likely yet that participation promises a disappointment to the Swiss. They are dependent on British tourist trade and feel the English from time to time are more interested in money than in pleasure.

Mr. Greenwood leaves Thursday for Montreal, New York and then to England where she will meet her three-year-old son Nigel before returning to Geneva.

Chickens selling at $5 each are not very pleasing prospect to any housewife. Yet that is the present day situation in Switzerland.

Such is the condition as found by Mrs. Margaret Weir, a visitor in the city for a few days, guest of her parents, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Murdoch McKinnon. For the poorer classes meat is a non-existent item.

But high as meat and poultry prices are, those of fruit and vegetables are relatively low. It is the reason that the Swiss are developing tasty fruit and vegetable dishes.

Engaged in the foreign service

England during the war, Mrs. Greenwood married Mr. Weilwood travelling with her husband and young son to her new home in Geneva two years ago. She is in Canada for the first time in seven years.

SWISS NEW LOOK

The new look has come to Switzerland but not to the same extent as in America. Because Swiss women on the average are not very tall they prefer clothes featuring shorter lengths.

A manufactured country is Mrs. Greenwood's impression of her adopted country. Public services are noted for their proficiency and cooperation with a country like Canada. Switzerland is mature.

Lake Geneva is all reports made it to be, the most appealing lake in Europe. Mrs. Greenwood has a perfect view of famed Mount Blanc from her home, a mountain whom she can only see during the summer.

Winters in Switzerland are milder than those in Canada for when it is snowing in the Alps, it is raining in the valleys. Mists and fog are very common to the country.

HEAVY TOURIST TRAFFIC

Tourists flock to Geneva because it is the center of the international press.

They are dependent on British tourists trading and feel the English from time to time are more interested in money than in pleasure.

Mr. Greenwood leaves Thursday for Montreal, New York and then to England where she will meet her three-year-old son Nigel before returning to Geneva.

MRS. S. H. GANDIER, provincial Girl Guide Commissioner, who is one of the two Canadian delegates appointed to the 12th World Conference of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. The meeting will be held in Cooperstown, New York, Aug. 13 to 23.

Mrs. S. H. Gandier Conference Delegate

Mrs. S. H. Gandier, provincial Girl Guide Commissioner, has been appointed delegate to the 12th World Conference of the world association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. The meeting will take place in the Otesaga hotel, Cooperstown, New York, Aug. 13 to 23.

Hostesses for the conference will be the Girl Scouts of America, the Banderantes do Brasil and the Canadian Girl Guides.

Each country which is a full member of the world association is entitled to send two delegates and two visitors. Each country is entitled to only one vote. Tentestaff member countries may send two delegates but have no vote.

Mrs. Gandier, who entered the Girl Guide movement in 1919 has had experiences as a Guide, district commissioner, regional commissioner, judge of training for Alberta, deputy provincial commissioner and in 1946 was appointed to her present post as provincial commissioner.

Further she has been associated through her Guiding work with the Women's University Club, Community Chest as well as other local organizations.

Miss Gandier's friends in Toronto will be the other Canadian delegate while Miss Phyllis of Quebec and Dora Farthing of Toronto have been appointed visitors.

WALKING SAVES HIM "WEE BIT"

MELBOURNE, May 5.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe said yesterday in this country no immediate clause will be made in restrictions on Canadian exports.

He was replying to E. B. McKenney (CFC), who asked if any changes could be made so exporters could take advantage of sales they make at the International Trade Fair, opening in Toronto next week.

Mr. Howe said the fair promised to be a success far beyond original anticipations, but he did not think any changes would support a change in the permit system.

Permits now were issued trade for goods not needed in Canada, or for long-term customers.

A good deal of thought before lengthy negotiations took place.

Therefore, Adams refused to win it. Now believing that he had defeated the king of diamonds, he had to decide which to try first. Unfortunately he made the wrong choice and had to play the jack of hearts to beat dummy, he would have lost only the king of diamonds, but he peddled queen of diamonds and took the lead.

Adams' knowledge of declarer play worth recording.

The opening lead of the king of spades was won in dummy. Now the king of diamonds or the queen of diamonds or the queen of hearts, and he had to decide which to try first. Unfortunately he made the wrong choice and had to play the jack of hearts to beat dummy, he would have lost only the king of diamonds, but he peddled queen of diamonds and took the lead.

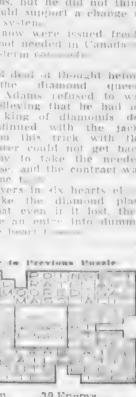

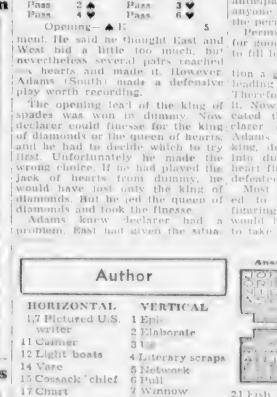

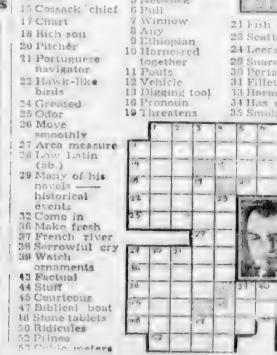

Adams knew declarer play a premium. East had given the situation a good deal of thought before lengthy negotiations took place.

Therefore, Adams refused to win it. Now believing that he had defeated the king of diamonds, he had to decide which to try first. Unfortunately he made the wrong choice and had to play the jack of hearts to beat dummy, he would have lost only the king of diamonds, but he peddled queen of diamonds and took the lead.

Most players in 4x hearts of course know that if it lost, he would have 20 entries into dummy to take the bauer.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Athabasca Board Questions Mileage

Committee Says Flatbush Route To Smith Only 9 Miles Shorter

ATHABASCA. May 5.—According to B. W. Bellamy secretary Athabasca and District Board of Trade, a statement appeared in the Edmonton press some weeks ago suggesting re-routing from the Dawson Public Works that the construction of Westover-Smith highway via Flatbush would mean a saving of between 40 and 50 miles as between Edmonton and Smith, as compared with mileage of Edmonton-Athabasca-Smith highway.

The statement at the time was discounted by members of the Athabasca and District Board of Trade, who were members of the transportation committee cover the area from where the Westlock road takes off from the main route, consisting of highway a few miles below Cyste.

The findings of the committee were tabulated at the regular monthly meeting of the board, the report stating that the speedometer registered .55 miles as between the base of the Westlock road and the village of Flatbush, and the continuation of that road metherly wouldn't mean getting through to Smith; that utilizing railway mileage as a point of reference, committee estimated the distance as .33 miles; that the distance from the base of the Westlock road to Smith via Flatbush would be nine miles shorter from Edmonton to Smith than the route via Athabasca.

Estimated distance was $500 to $600.

MANNVILLE ESCAPES FLOOD Worries

MANNVILLE. May 5.—Roads to the districts of the valley have been closed and many are impassable. One bridge over the Vermilion river, just north of the village was under water but the steel bridge (the Myman road) remained open.

Due to the efforts of the village council in having ditchers opened up the bulldozed the village was saved from water.

Arming Is Urged To Bolster 'Voice'

MPs Call for Strong Forces
To Make Sure of Peace

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, May 5.—(CP)—The faltering foreign affairs debate petered out in the Commons last night on a militaristic note.

As the four-day debate ended, two Progressive Conservative members urged that Canada arm as a means of making sure her voice is heard in the councils of the United Nations and ensuring that peace supplants these troubled times.

W. Garfield Case (PC—Grey North) suggested the Dominion build a "sizeable and substantial air force to back up Canada's obligations and commitments under the United Nations charter."

"Guard our country," he warned the chamber, "that is the first law of survival."

Douglas Harkness (PC—Cape West), a lieutenant-colonel aviator during the war, said Canada will have to increase her military forces if she is to have any influence.

"Otherwise," he said, "our word will be merely idle boasting."

BLACKMORE BLAMES U.S.

The commons alternately heard Blackmore cautiously defended the United States sharply criticized.

William Irvine (CCF—Cariboo) said he is convinced that many of the statements made by the U.S. are false and believe about the Russians are just as false as some of the things they say and believe about us.

John Blackmore (SC—Leighbridge) placed blame for the world's present troubles squarely on the United States.

"If you want to know where lies the cause of the distrust of men all over the earth, look to the United States of America."

Blackmore, born in Sublett, Idaho, 57 years ago, said he still loves the United States but one has to face the facts.

"Notwithstanding the fact this nation is world beyond all the nations that ever existed on the face of the earth, she has as many people per hundred within its borders who are on the side of the stars as there who are filled with dread as we have."

The United States was guided by "cunning principles of trade and finance" and had a "grossly misinformed people."

MARGARINE DEBATE

The Senate resumed debate on a bill to legalize margarine and heard three Eastern senators—two Liberals and one Conservative—say they favor lifting the ban on it. A fourth, Senator S. S. McGehee (L, British Columbia), was against it.

Govt. Considers Refugee Plans

GENEVA, May 5.—(UPI)—William Hallam Tuck, executive secretary of the International Refugee Organization, said yesterday that the Canadian government may spend $700,000 to settle 10,000 European refugee families, mostly from displaced persons camps in Germany, Austria and Italy.

Speaking at a meeting of the preparatory commission of the refugee organization, Tuck singled out the possible Canadian initiative as a model for the "generous and grudging policy" of many countries which assist only refugees working without dependents.

He added that the Canadian example is also considering a proposal to advance $450,000 to the refugee organization to provide more ships.

That some refugees might be flown to Canada.

Tuck also disclosed that Britain received more than 45,000 refugees and displaced persons in the eight months ending in February, more than twice as many as any other country.

In Ottawa, a high resources department official last night verified that the government has under consideration the granting of more than $1,000,000 to the International Refugee Organization.

Fair Fare's Accent Makes Cabbie Sore: He's Given Jail

BURBANK, Calif., May 5.—(AP)—A cab driver who became so enraged at the British accent of Miss Sheila Howarth, 26, ex-miss California, that he allegedly swung on her was sentenced yesterday to 90 days in jail for assault and battery.

The cabbie, Arthur Day, 48, plead ed his own case and was convicted of misdemeanor charges in police court.

Miss Howarth, an attractive young woman who wears a monocle, testified that she hired Day's cab and when she engaged him in conversation he struck her.

No CCF Backing For "Red" Candidate

TORONTO, May 5.—(CP)—The provincial convention of the Ontario CCF held last night issued a statement it had decided against endorsing H. H. Carlin as CCF candidate in Sudbury in the Ontario election June 10. The convention "has chosen to associate itself with those who consistently follow the Communist party line."

Mr. Carlin, Canadian director of the International Union of Textile Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO), was first elected on a CCF ticket in 1943. He was re-elected in the 1945 election.

Soured MP Challenges Anti-Jew Accusations

OTTAWA, May 5.—(CP)—Rev. E. G. Hansell (SC-MacLeod) yesterday in the Commons challenged the Vancouver News-Herald to probe into his past for "one sonorous statement that I have ever uttered against our friends."

During the first air debate declared yesterday, "I do not know what it is in my files, I can dig out all my old surmises they like, and I shall

IT'S NEW through and through

COME IN AND SEE THE 1949 MONARCH

Now the Grand New 1949 Monarch steps UP . . . Steps into a new class! Here's a big, broad, heavy car that looks NEW . . . looks new because it is completely new! The New Monarch looks DIFFERENT . . . because it has a completely NEW body . . . a bigger body of most modern construction . . . a ROOMIER body with beautiful, new-style lines that will capture your imagination!

We started from SCRATCH! The engineers who designed this new Monarch were told to start with the newest, STRONGEST, LOWEST kind of frame to carry the widest possible body. They were told to mount this frame on the newest, FASTEST RIDING springs to give the flattest, SMOOTHEST ride known to the motor car industry. When these things were done they perfected the ride with the most modern, smoothest-acting, trouble-free shock absorbers . . . That's why neither road bumps nor curves disturb your glorious feeling of RELAXATION —when you "Ride like a King" behind the NEW 110 Horsepower "V" type 8-cylinder Engine in the NEW Monarch.

Interiors delight your Good Taste! Every single detail of the New Monarch's interiors will delight you with its good taste . . . the sparkling new Instrument Panel—with most CONVENIENT arrangement of controls—a BUILT-IN ventilating system with dual instrument panel controls, that provides any desired amount of fresh air—or fresh warm air with a heater installed—lights that illuminate the interior when you open any door—rich upholsteries that harmonize with exterior colours—all these and dozens of other delightful touches are yours when you own a NEW Monarch!

Ride with your Monarch Dealer! Pictures can't convey the distinction of this new car . . . neither can words give you the THRILL of DRIVING a New Monarch! Go to your Monarch dealer's and look at this car that's NEW through and through . . . make a date to go for a drive with your Monarch dealer—then you'll KNOW that the NEW Monarch is the car you want . . . the car you must have to satisfy your pride of ownership!

OIL

Two more wildcats in central Alberta have been shot for abandonment. Canadian Gulf's recently drilled Marshall No. 1, west of Stettler, will be abandoned as soon as the stuck pipe is freed. At present roads have forced permanent remedial work to free the pipe. The hole is bottomed at 5,899 feet. Further survey work will soon start in the area before more holes are drilled.

The other hole slated for abandonment is McColl's front near Stony Plain which went dry at 1,000 feet. It was drilled with a 1 1/2-inch bit.

The major companies have abandoned holes in the areas immediately around Woodbend. Imperial has drilled at Paddle River, Canadian Gulf on the Stony Plain Indian Reserve, and McColl front near the town of Stony Plain south of the town of Stony Plain.

The oil-bearing zone extends beyond the Woodbend area. It must be in a north-easterly direction from Woodbend discovery and production.

Two tests under way in this area are currently held up by roads.

They are Continental No. 3 and Consolidated Homestead No. 2.

Both are held up on an ad 75-51 bottomed below 2,600 feet awaiting the arrival of a heavier drilling rig.

Consolidated Homestead is drilling a test well in the same area, about five miles northeast of Woodbend discovery well. This hole is down to 4,224 feet. Road conditions have forced a temporary suspension of operations. Discovery of oil in this area would enhance the value of parts of the crown reserve in the Woodbend township.

The number of leaseholders in the locality is increasing.

Home Leduc No. 7 had a successful test in the D2 zone before drilling was stopped due to bad weather.

A. Mathur, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, told the annual general meeting of shareholders today that the company's rail traffic in the province is to be undertaken by the transport board.

Twenty years have elapsed since the first electric power was generated in this country.

Mr. Mathur said, "Your company has made a substantial contribution to the welfare of the people of Alberta."

European countries were inquiring into Canadian export possibilities.
